The pre-war house in the city center in one of the busiest streets. Business zone of the city, with many banks, shops, office buildings. Nearby is a public garage as well as public transport stop for several lines. The house is of renovated interior and corridors are decorated with ornaments of plaster. The room is functional structure and is located on the first floor. Renovated and bright, salon type, with high ceilings and doors. Two oriented. It has a separate entrance, with entrance hall in front. There are 6 offices which are interconnected. All are air-conditioned, with an indented computer network and halogen lighting. They are very spacey, each for a few employees. An excellent choice is suitable for various activities.
