An excellent apartment in new, closed complex in Dedinje area. It is located between Autokomanda and Dedinje square, and close to highway exit. The building complex is situated on a large plot as one part of four semi detached houses with three floors. The building is nicely maintained with granite entrance hall. The apartment is housed on the second floor and oriented towards the Autokomanda. It is comfortable and spacious, with living room, saloon and dining room organized as open space of 40 m². This apartment has characteristic high ceilings which make living room area very attractive. The kitchen is fully equipped, visually separated with a kitchen counter. Special advantage of this apartment is large terrace which spreads all around the dining area with a beautiful view of Belgrade, from Hram st Sava to Kalemegdan fortress. Two bedrooms and two bathrooms are at disposal, where one of bedrooms is with bathroom of its own. Interior of the apartment is bright and equipped with high quality materials, video surveillance and security service. In the basement there are garages for parking larger vehicles. The apartment is suitable for family life on the exclusive location.
