Excellent apartment, in a well-maintained residential building in a quiet street, in the heart of Vračar, and in the immediate vicinity of the Kalenić market and the commercial area. The city center can be reached in just fifteen minutes' walk, and several lines of public transport are available. Living room is connected with dining area and a partially separate and well-equipped kitchen. There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms and one wardrobe available. A large terrace stretches across the entire width of the living room, with a view of the landscaped yard and tree trunks. The apartment can be fully furnished or unfurnished. A parking space in the garage is also available to future tenants. Ideal for family life.
