An apartment with functional layout is situated in a street with large frequency of traffic, close to St Marko church, Kneza Milosa street and Tasmajdan park. Variety of commercial content is available in the neighbourhood, while the location is very well connected with all parts of the city. The apartment is housed in post war, well maintained building with an elevator. It is spacious with two-side orientation on the fifth floor. Contains two large rooms, both with a terrace overlooking the street. Spacious living room with fully equipped kitchen is central part of the apartment which has an exit to a long glased-in terrace overlooking the yard. Bathroom is completely renovated. This airy and bright apartment is highly comfortable. Suitable for business activities.
