An excellent apartment housed on the first floor of older building in New Belgrade, across the old Merkator. This location is very frequent both with pedestrians and traffic, while neighbourhood is rich in variety of commercial content and close to several public institutions. Connection is very good with rest of the city by public transport and personal vehicle as well. The apartment has functional structure and it is suitable for business activities. It consists of three rooms, separate kitchen, hallway, bathroom, pantry and glassed-in terrace. In front of the building is parking lot, and parking spots are not numerated. Suitable for quiet business activities with small client frequency.
