New, comfortable apartment, housed in an excellent building in the center of Vracar, not far from Krunska Street and Kalenic green market. Very nice location close to the landscaped parks Tasmajdan and Karadjordjev park, sports center and several different shops. Situated within only a few minute walking distance from Bulevar kralja Aleksandra, where buses and trams stop, and lead to different parts of the city. Vracar is a municipality rich in all the facilities that make everyday life easier - cafes, restaurants, banks, kindergartens, everything is at your fingertips. The position of the property is great for business people, who prefer a quiet location in the environment of city life. The apartment is well equipped, according to the standards of modern life. It consists of an open space living room with dining area, with access to a comfortable terrace oriented towards the street. The kitchen is equipped with all appliances and it is a separate room. There are three bedrooms at disposal located in a separate part of the apartment, isolated from noise and oriented towards the yard. One bathroom is with a bathtub and the other with a shower cabin. Property is bright and very comfortable, suitable for a one person, a couple or a family.
