Nice apartment housed on the top floor of a newly built building, in a quiet location. Positioned near the Bajloni green-market and the Botanical Garden in a complex of streets with relatively small amount of traffic flow. The building is excellently maintained, with an elevator. The apartment is renovated, cozy and bright. It consists of a living room interconnected with a kitchen that has access to a comfortable and very intimate terrace, a spacious bedroom and a bathroom with a shower cabin. The addition is a small gallery reached by a movable wrought iron ladder. The gallery has a height that does not allow standing, but it is spacious enough for a double mattress, so this is a variant where occasional guests can sleep. The apartment is very nicely decorated, with a lot of interesting, artistic details that fit perfectly into the ambiance. Suitable for one person or a couple.
